“ To me, Louise was the lady with all the charm, and delightful humor in any situation. That was why we stood side by side doing what was needed as band parents, and later the enjoyment of phone calls and getting together when we could. It feels as though, all that time was too short, and the peace I have, is knowing she was a strong believer in Jesus Christ. Thankful, grateful and blessed to have known this lady from our high school days until now.
