

Agnes Daniels Spence

April 27, 2003

Agnes Daniels Spence was born in Shawnee, Oklahoma on December 27, 1907 to Harvey and Nora Hodges Daniels. She passed away April 27, 2003 in Tyler, Texas. Her younger years were spent in Cleveland, Ohio; Dallas, Texas; and San Angelo, Texas, but San Angelo was her home for all of her adult life until she moved to Dallas in 1991 and to Lindale, Texas in 1997. She attended the University of Texas in Austin and later worked for Ricker and Dodson Oil Company in San Angelo. On August 15, 1929, she married native San Angeloan, Carl F. Spence, who was with the San Angelo Nation Bank for 47 years. He died in 1979. Agnes Spence was involved in many community activities throughout her life. She was a longtime member of the First Presbyterian Church of San Angelo, where, at different times, she served as superintendent of the kindergarten department, church secretary, assistant church librarian, and president of the Elizabeth Wood Sunday School Class. Her other activities included Girl Scout troop leader, president of the Stephen F. Austin Elementary School PTA, president of the '32 Club civic organization, and a member of the Opti-Mrs. Club when the members organized and began Boys' Ranch. She was also a member of the Eastern Star, the Concho Valley Stamp Club and the San Angelo Historical Society. She is survived by her Daughter and Son-in-Law, Kathleen and Richard Stallings of Hide-A-Way Lake in Lindale, Texas; 2 Granddaughters, Amy Griffith and her husband Andrew; and Lisa Johnson and her husband Mikal; Twin Great Grandchildren, Spence and Lauren Griffith; 3 Nieces, Several Cousins, and many Friends.Graveside Services will be held at the Fairmount Cemetery in San Angelo at 11:00 A.M. Wednesday, April 30, 2003. Memorial gifts may be given to Family Council at Colonial Nursing Center in Lindale or the First Methodist Church Building Fund in Lindale.
