“ I met Cira as a teenager in Saginaw, Michigan at Latin American Assembly of God Church. I have know her a life time and she was also my ex-mother in law. She was a loving grandma to my 3 son's Joshua, Samuel and Stephen, there was never anything she would not do for her entire family. She loved to read to my son;s, and love on them. She was very good to me and my family. I know she will be missed very much. May she rest in peace.
