“ Honestly, I remember sitting next to him and Noveah in pharm tech and they'd be jamming out and singing and always having fun. In english every time i'd look over id see him playing games even though the school blocked most of the games. We were paired up in theater sophomore year just before covid and i was supposed to be "crazy obsessed and in love" with alex. Truly he had a zest for life and always tried to be the best person. He will be forever missed. ”
