“ I can't remember when I first met Al, but it had to be over 30 years ago. I have so many memories of stories he told and the hours we spent together, when he was teaching me to blue guns. He always had time for teaching, arguing, trading and visiting and just enjoying life. Al and I would argue over $5 on a trade, knowing all along that when it was over, one of us would give in. Al always had so many reasons why my trade was not worth the extra $5 I wanted. I always looked forward to seeing Al at his shop or at gun shows, even if he did not have anything I was interested in, it was always a pleasure to sit and visit with Al. Al was one of those people who you could tell was a Christian, by the way he talked, worked, lived and enjoyed life. I will truly miss my friend, Al Worley. Rest in Peace Brother, you deserve it.
