“ Ali was a very special lady to me. She was such a caring and thoughtful person. She truly loved her family and wished she could have lived long enough to watch all her grandchildren grow up. But she was also thankful ALS affected her and not a younger person. She touched my heart. I admire her family for taking care of her with such love and compassion. I love you Ali!! Until we meet again. Tracey Creech

Jennifer & family, our hearts hurt with you, but we rejoice in the fact that your mom is no longer in pain. Be comforted in the promises that God gives, and know without doubt that we will all be together again. It is written.

*Love you all,
The Fedell's*
