“ I have known Allison for a while now. I will never forget Christmas 2007 Allison, Aubrey and I went to Crackle Barrel and to Walmart although we didn't do that much that night we had a good time just laughing and talking about the old days. Allison was a truly wonderful person. I will never forget her smile that is what stands out most to me about Allison. Mr. and Mrs. Prestwood you are in my prayers along with that sweet baby girl Aubrey. I know that we will all see Allison again!##imported-begin##Brian & Casey Cok##imported-end##

“ It was a privilege for Allison to be a part of our family and my daughter-in-law. She was a precious young woman and her faith was outstanding. She has definitely has left a tremendous void in those lives who knew her. I'm relieved you pain no more and God's peace be with you Al. Love, Tona##imported-begin##Tona##imported-end##

“ Knowing that Allison is not suffering anymore makes me feel at peace with all this. I know the family will have tough roads ahead but don’t give up on the fact that God will pull you all through. Jenn~your the best friend I could have and you know I am here for you no matter what! You, Mike and the boys mean the world to us and although we tell you this all the time, we truly LOVE you guys!##imported-begin##Jeff and Gail Moore##imported-end##

“ Allison, what a brave, courageous person you have been. What you have had to go through the last couple of years is more than most people have to go through in their lifetime and yet you did so with a smile in your heart and on your face. I can tell by what others have written here that you were special in so many ways. You know that Aubrey will always be loved and cared for and she already has the beautiful smile that will always remind us of you. Your short life here was like a vapor, but you will have everlasting life. We Love You, Aunt Judy and Uncle Jay##imported-begin##Jay and Judy Howard##imported-end##

“ Though I never had the opportunity to meet Allison, I learned of her illness through Jennifer when she worked at St. Luke’s Episcopal School. I know the family will miss Allison and that her battle with cancer has been a courageous one. To the family, please know that you will remain in our prayers and to Jennifer, please know that you have a special spot in our prayers and thoughts at this most difficult time.

“ I made a pack with Allison to be best friends. That was a hard thing for me because every best friend I had, I&#39;ve lost. I will always remember the things we did together and the things we laughed uncontrollably about. Boy could she crack me up. She always, no matter what, had away of making things better. Sometimes she would just text me and say I love you. I&#39;d say I love you too and I wouldn&#39;t hear anything else from her. I still expect my phone going off and a text from Boo to be there saying I love you Poo, oh and so does Moo. Kristen and I have made a pack to stay and become better friends so that we can remember Allison together. She was an awesome friend and mother. She loved Aubrey with all her heart. I hope Aubrey will have the same spirit her mother had. I know she will be able to brighten a day just like her Mom did.
Lots of Love and Prayers...

“ I miss you so much already. The last time we spoke, I told you I love you, and I meant it. I'm sorry I didn't say it more often. I cry for Aubrey, and myself, but not for you. I know you are finally at peace, without pain, and smiling back at a Maker who is well pleased with you. You will be in my thoughts and heart forever. See you when I get there.##imported-begin##Amanda Kail##imported-end##

“ To have only visited with Allison a few times, she still communicated a strong sense of peacefulness and strength...especially in her final days. Her huge smile, alone, made her someone who was approachable and warm. To lose such a young spirit is sadness for family and friends...but what a gain for Heaven! We&#39;ll see you again, Allison! One Fine Day!!!###imported-begin###Ginny & Regina Helms###imported-end###
