“ To the family of Alvin Murray Black, my heart is saddened at the loss of our beloved Murray. He will be truly missed by me and all who loved him.

I loved him like a father and know that he loved me. I will never forget the kindness and love he showed to me as a child, and young woman.

His unique voice, smile, and laugh are etched in my heart forever.

Alvin, and Stephen, I'm so grateful to you for sharing Murraray with us all these years. Murraray, and you and Natalie, were "Family" to us and always will be.

As a child, I always looked forward to being with Murraray, and you and Natalie, when y'all visited us at the "Green house", and when we came to the big "White" house to visit. y'all. Some of my happiest childhood memories are of being with y'all.

I've often told my children and grandchildren, about how Murraray would greet me with a grin and do his "gentleman" kiss of my hand and then continue the kisses almost up to the elbow. I loved watching Murraray and Natalie, and Mama and Daddy playing dominoes and laughing about their excursions to their "spots" in Kilgore and other "wet" counties; dancing the night away. I've regaled them with memories of our times together as a "combined family", when Murraray would bring you to play with the 6 Brooks kids.

Murraray was a true life long friend to Mama and Daddy, and all of us. I thank God for the gift of Murraray in my life. His kindness to me, brought me much happiness as a child.

Murraray's presence in the Brooks house, always brighten my day. Now that Murray's completed his 104 year journey back to Our Father's House, I know that Heaven is a brighter place, because, Murraray's special smile has lit up the room. (I wonder if he removed his hat.?)

Love,

P.S.

While the words above are sincere; the heartfelt tribute to Murrary, that I first wrote, as it poured out of my heart, was lost because I checked spelling of a name; but I know that Murrary heard the words as they tumbled out of my heart through my fingers as I typed. I cried as I wrote them, and as I mourn the loss of Murrary, a bright light in my life.

Love,

Bunny Brooks
