“ *Dear Grandma,
Where do I start. I got so much of you in me that I can't put into words everything I want to say. You taught me so much made me the woman I am today. The reason I have never settled for nothing less than I think and believe I deserve. I will miss taking you shopping and of course out to eat chinees food of your choice. How could I ever forget the day that I found a bug in mine and all you could say was ' I'm glad I didn't get that today.' I miss you do much that my heart just hurts. I know that your in a better place but I am just selfish and know that I want you here with me. You was my rock. I love you grandma and miss you.*

“ *Oh Grandma!
I will miss you so so much!
Thank you for all the wonderful memories!
Thank you for being my advocate!
Thank you for giving me you sense of humor!
The selfish part of me wanted to keep you here with me forever, because I don't know a world without you in it. But I know you were tired and wanted to go home to be with your siblings, your sons and your great great grandson. I find joy in knowing that you are up there in heaven dancing away! I will keep a part of you with me, and every where I am there you'll be. I love you Grandma, I will see you when you I get there.*

“ I always loved visiting with cousin Annie Ruth when we went to Texas. She always made me smile, and even laugh a little. I have special childhood memories also with Annie Ruth, Yvonne, Margaret, Shirley, and Bobby.... fun childhood memories never forgotten. Love and prayers for the family.

“ Diane, Margaret, Brad:

I have missed your Mom so much since she had to leave here. Gosh, how she made me laugh with words that only she could say. Daddy came down to my house today and he told me. I smiled and said, well. Then a memory of her flashed in my mind. It wasn't that long ago when she was walking up to visit, and she would yell, "what cha doing", or some times she would just wave and head on to daddy's house. This old hill will never ever be the same without her. But as I drove in tonight from work I saw the guard light on, on her hill. I miss the old days when we were all still here, this old hill was full of life and never a dull moment. Now it's quite, not much life, nobody visits. I wonder if this old hill will ever come back to life. I love each of every one of you,.
