

Anna Lou Cheek

July 9, 1921 - January 16, 2013

Anna Lou Cheek, age 91, passed away peacefully January 16, 2013, in Dallas, TX. She was born to Callie and Emmett Cave on July 9, 1921, in Rotan, TX. She was a registered nurse and worked at Baylor Hospital in Dallas where she met and married Dr. J. Harold Cheek. They were married for 67 years, and upon retirement spent many happy years living at Hide-A-Way Lake. Anna Lou enjoyed painting, quilting, hooking rugs, and was known for her dry sense of humor. She was a wonderful and supportive mother and loved dearly by her girls.

She is survived by her daughters Lynn Newsom and her husband Kirk; Mary Jane Van Zandt and her husband Bruce; Jenny Cheek and her husband Larry Harley and Macy Chionsini and her husband Jim. She will lovingly be remembered as LuLu by her grandchildren Chris Newsom, Julianna Miele and her husband Rocco and J.T. Maroney and his wife Shelley. She has two great grandchildren Ali and Kylie Maroney.

Her family wishes to thank the staff at The Forum and The Legacy at Preston Hollow, where she spent her final years, for their attentive care and friendship.

A private memorial service will be held. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to the Hideaway Lake Community Church, 1115 Lake Cross Road, Hideaway, TX 75771, or The Baylor Healthcare Foundation, 3600 Gaston

Ave., Dallas, TX 75246.
