“ Arta was a hoot! I met her as I child, but got to know her a little bit as an adult. She loved the Lord, and she loved to laugh. I will always appreciate both those things about her. In fact, as to the first thing, the main memory I have of her when I was a child and we attended the same church was a song she sang as a special one Sunday. The title of the song was "I Was Born To Love The Lord." She was, she did, and now she will walk with Him forever. See you later, Arta! :)
