“ Barb, my dear friend from afar, once upon a time so close, I miss you so much! You were not just the best friend I ever had, you were family to me - and you still are! Your soul will live on - in my heart!

Kyle, Annie and Max, Achim and I share your grief and sorrow. Life won't be the same without Barb. But, she left a footprint of love, joy, kindness, energy, creativity and so much more on earth. Others who were positively influenced by Barb might follow her trace, and thus, continue to make the(ir) world a better place.

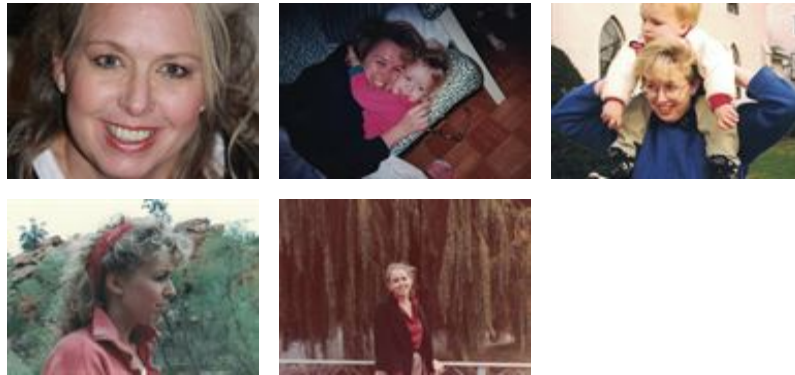

We think of you and hope to see eachother in 2017!

“ Sorry to hear the news and my condolences to the family. Barbara and I had many talks which I still reflect on to this day. Her smile is the one thing I always remembered - despite whatever trials came her way - she still put a smile on and relied on her faith - and that taught me a lot. -Jacqueline Bagwell - Geoffery, Logan, Seth, Kaleb Elias, & Aden

“ Barbara was so good to all of us that were friends with Annie and Max. We were welcome in her home on several occasions, and she and Annie would cook for us and we'd have conversation, games, and a movie in the living room. Her heart went out to all of us then, and my heart goes out to her family now.
