

Barbara Sue Sprick

August 16, 1947 - December 27, 2013

With the clack of a keyboard and clicks of a mouse late at night, loving grandmother Barbara Sprick shops for her beloved grandson Eli's Christmas gifts. With sheer excitement and a gleam in her eyes, she could not wait to see the look on his face on Christmas morning. Barbara received the greatest gift she and her family could ask for, one final joyful Christmas together before returning home to the Lord.

At age 66, the loving wife, mother and grandmother passed away in her home in Lindale, Texas on Friday, December 27. Her husband Ron Sprick, son Jeff, his wife Ruth, and grandson Eli were the center of her life. Her gentle, caring nature and friendly smile brought her countless friends who have loved her and blessed her life in countless ways. She gave joy to others with her kindness and goodwill. Those she left behind will miss her deeply, but will now be looking down on all her family and friends from above.

Services for Barbara are scheduled for 10 a.m. on Tuesday, December 31 at St. Benedict Catholic Church in Subiaco, Arkansas. Internment will follow afterwards at the St. Benedict Cemetery under the direction of Roller Funeral Home in Paris, Arkansas.

Barbara was born August 16, 1947 in Paris, Arkansas to Eddie Ray and Ima Sue Gattis Phillips. She met the love of her life and soul-mate Ronald Abe Sprick after graduating from Paris High School. Together they lived in several locations in Arkansas while Ron enlisted in the Army Reserve. After finishing, they adopted their child Jeffrey Alan Sprick in 1978. Together they lived in many different cities throughout Arkansas and Texas before moving to Lindale 20 years ago. Barbara was a member of Holy Family Catholic Church in Lindale Texas. Throughout her career, she worked as a real estate administrative assistant.

Barbara is also survived by brothers Eddie R. Phillips Jr. and Gary Phillips, both of Paris, Arkansas; sisters Jo Schriver of Scranton, Arkansas and Charlotte Grimes of Paris, Arkansas.

Rosary and visitation are scheduled for 6:30 p.m. on Monday, December 30 at the Roller Funeral Home in Paris, Arkansas.
