“ It was my privilege to meet Betty the first year that I moved to Jacksonville in 1991. She and I met while working at Jacksonville Intermediate School. Since we shared the same lunch period, we had the opportunity to visit each day. As a result, we formed a special friendship and maintained that friendship throughout the years--even through changes in our schools and our assignments.

Seems that we were destined to have lunch with each other on many occasions. Almost every Sunday after church we would share part of our meals together at Subway. She would be finishing up her lunch just as I arrived and began mine. It was amazing how many topics we could cover in such a short period of time.

Betty was one of those warm kind of people. You know, the ones who make you feel like you've always known them. I'll always be grateful for her friendship. God truly blessed me by allowing her to become part of my life.

Much love and sympathy to her family . . .
