She was born July 2, 1923 in St. Joseph, Missouri, the daughter of Louis and Cleora Best. She was preceded in death by her brother, Louis Best; sister, Jerry Ann Riepen; sons Michael Frances Danaher, Leland Duane Parsons; and husbands John Frances Danaher of St. Joseph, Missouri and Frederick J. Weston of Houston, Texas.

Mrs. Weston is survived by sons and daughters-in-law, John and Faye Danaher of Lindale, TX, Phillip and Anita Danaher of Calallen, TX; 9 grandchildren; 9 great grandchildren; sister-in-law, Dorothy Best of Richmond, TX, 2 nephews, Herb Best of Richmond, TX; Fred Riepen of Sugarland, TX; 2 nieces, Sharon Sellers of Richmond, TX and Pam Riepen of Harlingen, TX.

Mrs. Weston was a member of the First Baptist Church in Harlingen, TX. She was member of the Republican Party and among her proudest moments were attending both Ronald Reagan's and George Bush, Sr.'s Presidential inaugurations. She was a past member of the "Million Dollar Round Table" with Mutual of New York Insurance Company. Mrs. Weston and her late husband, Fred J. Weston, owned and operated Weston Furniture Store for over 30 years before retiring. She was a past member of the River Oaks

Country Club and resided at the Lamar Towers until June, 2008.

She loved her family get-togethers and delighted in planning all the events.

Her four sons were always first in her life. She will be missed by all who knew her.

“ &quot;Aunt&quot; Betty was the most wonderful hostess I ever knew. She was always welcoming and full of energy when guests arrived. She valued and loved people greatly. She will certainly be missed by all those old friends,those that were included as family were truly fortunate. Go with God dear Betty. Love, Sis##imported-begin##Sis Brotzman##imported-end##
