“ I had the pleasure of being Bobs caregiver for several months. I made it my goal and challenge to make him smile or laugh every time I was with him. That was an easy task we laughed and smiled frequently. He was full of life, enjoyed life and adored his wife and family. He was a very kind, funny sweet man. He will be remembered and missed deeply. Patty and Glen Cox.

“ What drew me to Bob, was his incredible sense of humor. Although he was only my friend for 2 years, I felt like like he was father to me. Sometimes we would sit outside and just enjoy the country atmosphere. Neither needed to speak: just sit and spend time together. My life is all the better for knowing Bob Brinker.
