“ Bobby made a significant impact on me as a child and adolescent. As a family friend he genuinely cared for me and was often a friend when I had no one else to lean on. We were even “roomies” for a period of time when he lived with us. While I lost contact with him in my adult years, I am sure he continued to have a positive impact on others. That was his God given gift. His death is our loss but heaven’s gain.
