“ Bohn is my beloved nephew but when we were little, I pretended he was my little brother. He was the cutest white-headed toddler boy, and so fun to play with. We spent countless Thanksgivings and Christmas Eves together at Butch and Janie’s lovely home through the years. And one of our highlights was the Butler family cruise in 2004, which Bohn planned and arranged for about 13 of us. Sweet memories now, I will miss Bohn so much. Melodye Butler Locklear

“ A better friend there never was. From the time I met Bohn in the 1980s until now, we had many special memories, traveled together, made each other laugh, consoled one another, gave each other (unwanted) advice and became a part of each other's family. Musical talent, great wit, thoughtful, always there for you. Rest in peace, my dearest friend, and I know we will all see you again one day.
