He served his country for five years and fought alongside his brothers in Iraq. He heroically protected our soldiers from his helicopter as they would be transported into combat zones throughout the theater. Dylan's wife and children adore him. The gentleness and love he exhibited toward them provided comfort and safety and warmth every day. He personified what it means to be faithful to God and Family. It wasn't a chore or burden for Dylan, it was his simply his nature. While we cannot know why the Lord took Dylan now, we know that he and Katelynn experienced pure joy during the time God had them together. His presence will be forever felt in the lives that were close to him.

“ My most sincere condolences to 'Pete's' family and friends. I live in Rowlett and frequented auto parts stores. Used to go to auto autozone. Good people there. But after a couple trips to O'Reilly I met Pete. Instant friends. Something about Pete, he couldn't hide his greatness however how much he tried. What a gentle soul and great spirit. Treated everyone with a lot of respect. I don't know that if the fact we were both military veterans we became instant friends. But friends we were. I went to O'Reilly's this past Saturday only to receive the shocking news of my friend passing. I am truly heart broken and will miss him very much. All his employees speak so highly of Pete and they too will miss him a lot. He definitely raised the bar as a Manager. I know it sounds so cliché, but please let me know if I can be of help or support in any way. Love you man and may you RIP my brother.

“ I only got to know Dylan thru interaction with our family. I know how happy he made Katelynn and their children. He treated my niece and great nieces with love and respect. To me personally the measure of a man is how he treats his family. With that said Dylan was a giant of a man.
