“ I will never forget my sister Carla abney. From the very beginning in the time I knew her, she was always a living example of the gospel. She was selfless, willing, and obedient to whatever God was saying. I will never forget the encouraging word she spoke over me when I first got to calvary. Though I'm a bit jealous that she is enjoying eternity with the Lord, one thing remains to speak continuously here throughout this whole season with cancer she went through, and that is to remain faithful to the very end. Until God calls each one of us home, we are to be faithful to the very end. Love you sister..
