This woman was one of the bravest i knew. She had the sole of a fighter, the will of a warrior. And the heart of an Angel. Everyone, not just her family, knew with her on their side you could not lose. She stood by her son, in his hards fight, cheered him, advised him, and prayed. He came through victorious. So many times when one of her friends or family was ready to quit, she would reach out to them and strengthen them. I should know I was one. She put aside her illness and issues to make you stronger. This world has lost a sister, but heaven has gain a powerful angel. She will forever be in my heart until we meet again. I will always remember her yelling me " your not done, you have me on your side and we are not done. Thank you sweet Caroline, for always see ahead and having my back. I will miss you but will always love you my sister. Find a great fish spot for us when I get there. ❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️

*I worked with Caroline at the City of Dallas in Mayor City Council. She was the sweetest and had a great sense of humor. She brought Megan around and Megan and I would always tease each other. Megan, your mom lives in you every day and she was so proud of the woman you became. My condolences to you and your brother along with your entire family. We grieve with you.
