

Carolyn Sue Martin Vincent

February 7, 1948 - October 4, 2018

Funeral services for Carolyn Sue Martin Vincent, age 70, of Lindale, Texas are scheduled for 2:00 P.M. Sunday, October 7, 2018 at the First Baptist Church in Lindale with Rev. Tom Buck officiating. Interment will be held at 11:15 A.M. on Tuesday, October 9, 2018 in the Dallas/Ft. Worth National Cemetery in Dallas, Texas with Rev. Chris Dilley officiating. Services are under the direction of Caudle-Rutledge-Daugherty Funeral Home in Lindale, Texas.

Carolyn Sue Martin Vincent was born at Saint Mary's Hospital in Port Arthur, Texas, on February 7, 1948, to Edwin Oliver (E.O) and Shirley Romero Martin. Carolyn passed from this life into the presence of her Savior on Thursday, October 4, 2018. Carolyn firmly believed and frequently said "Love never fails", and sharing the love of Christ by loving others was the main theme of Carolyn's life. When she was a child in school, Carolyn's teacher told her that she would grow up to be mother hen with all of her little chicks around her, and loving children was one of the primary ways that Carolyn extended the love of Christ. She taught Sunday School and missions classes at Trinity Baptist Church in Port Arthur and at First Baptist Church Lindale. She taught at and directed Trinity Baptist Church Day Care in Port Arthur, Texas from for eight years. Many precious children were impacted with the love of Christ through the Day Care, by staying with Carolyn (affectionately referred to as "Ca Ca") for childcare, and by staying in the Vincent home when they needed a safe place of refuge.

Carolyn taught English to internationals for more than 5 decades of her life. This focus of love began when she was a teenager working at the mission center in downtown Port Arthur. She and Joe helped many internationals to learn the English and cultural skills that would help them to assimilate into American life. Most notably, she impacted these people from many places with the love and knowledge of Christ. She was preceded in death by her brother, Edwin Oliver Martin, Jr. Carolyn is survived by her loving husband of 51 years, Joseph William Vincent, Sr.; children, Beau Vincent and wife, Michelle, Lynette Stalls and husband, Stacey, and Pam Hines and husband, Don; grandchildren, Susannah Benton and Sydney Hines; brothers, Michael Martin and Shawn Martin, numerous nieces and nephews and dear friends. The family will receive friends from 6:00 P.M. to 8:00 P.M. Saturday, October 6, 2018 at the Caudle-Rutledge-Daugherty Funeral Home in Lindale.

“ Lord, we ask that you help Joseph Vincent and his children, through their time of loss and transition. Make them strong of body and mind. Joe has been your servant through life, although we all lack perfection and are not without sin. Lord we ask that that you surround them with comfort and love.

In Jesus name, Amen

“ Carolyn embodied Christ's command to "love one another". She knew the Savior's love and could do nothing else than share it. She has inspired me, not to perfect theology or service but simply..to love, as I have been loved. I will miss her.

“ Mrs Carolyn holds a dear place in my heart. She had the largest, kindest heart. I have many fond memories of several places in Texas to Israel. My favorite memory was a crawfish boil that she did just for me! She learned that I had never eaten crawfish and she set about correcting that awful oversight. She boiled them and Joe patiently helped me peel them until I had eaten my fill. They were busy people but stopped everything to spend an afternoon with me and to love me that way. They both treated me like i was the queen of the world and showed me every kindness throughout the rest of my life. I am so grateful that I knew her and know her wonderful family.

“ My cousin Carolyn Sue was the sweetest soul I've ever met. Her love for God was an inspiration to me and she was my spiritual mentor during my young adulthood. I know she is in God's loving arms and she will be visiting with my mom and Ma and Pa. I'm praying for God's peace for all of you. I love y'all. Terri Melancon Jolly
