“ I just found out about Cecil’s passing. I was Cecil’s first love. We were so young and had plans on marrying after I graduated from HS and he got out of the Marines. I’m so saddened by his passing without getting to say goodbye. I’m just very happy he found true love in his life. May God be with his wife and son.

“ Patti: Keith told me that he ran into you at Hospice the other day. I am so sorry for your loss. Cecil was a wonderful man. I know for sure that he was your soul mate. I will be in Dallas on Saturday and will not be able to make it to the visitation, but just know that you and Matthew are in my thoughts. We are just in shock. I thought about you the whole time I was away on my trip... If you ever need me, I will always be there for you. I’m sorry...
