“ This is so hard to believe! Unfortunately it’s not life without death, the good news is Bubba chose to live. Some of my greatest memories of life included you. We snuck out of the house together, got stuck in ditches together, went to rodeos together, laughed a lot and did some things we probably shouldn’t have but had fun. The memories of you will never be lost. I’ll never forget the curly hair, that funny little mustache or the way you would smirk our laugh out of the corner of your mouth. Thanks for being a part of who I am, for making an impression on my my life. You live on in us.##imported-begin##Richard Howell##imported-end##

“ Lynda, Donnie, Bobby, Shelby, Hayley, Carley, Logan, I’m saddened by the loss of our precious Bubba. I know Mary Beth, Uncle Jake, Uncle Cliff, Aunt Carolyn, and Granny welcomed him into Heaven today. Mary Beth and Carolyn had Cliff and Jake working on the party getting it ready for him when he arrived. Praying for each of you as you go through this time.##imported-begin##Delores Hayley##imported-end##
