

Charles M. Qualls

May 18, 1930 - August 24, 2003

Charles M. Qualls, born May 18, 1930, died August 24, 2003. A beloved and devoted husband, father, friend, teacher, coach and athletic director with 40 years of service in public education who touched the life of everyone he came in contact with. His coaching philosophy was to teach young men success through hard work, determination and, above all, strong Christian values. Member of Hide-a-Way Community Church, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, member and past president of Texas High School Coaches Association (THSCA) and Hall of Honor inductee in both the THSCA and Texas High School Athletic Directors Association. Survived by his wife of 51 years, Joan G. Qualls of Hide-a-Way, TX, brother Smitty Qualls of Sherman, TX, sister Gayle Bennett of Tyler, TX, son and daughter-in-law Scott and Betty Qualls of Greenville, TX, son and daughter-in-law Andrew and Liz Qualls of Heath, TX, daughter and son-in-law Laurie and David Kemerling of Austin, TX, 7 grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews. Preceded in death by brother Buckley Qualls.

Visitation will be from 7:00 P.M. to 9:00 P.M. on August 28, 2003 at Caudle-Rutledge Funeral Home in Lindale, TX with private graveside service the next morning. A memorial service will be held at 2:30 P.M. on August 29, 2003 at Shiloh Terrace Baptist Church in Dallas, TX. Memorials may be made to the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.
