“ I'm so sorry sorry to hear of Christy's passing. My thought and prayers are with your during this difficult time. Christy and I became great friends a few years after high school. She and I were always running around together back then. She was such a sweet lady, and always had a smile for everyone. I know you will miss her dearly.

“ Christy was my friend. We helped each other through many years of ups and downs. You know who your friends are when you have those down times. She was a true and faithful friend. I am certain that she is at peace now.
I will miss her very much.
