“ To his family, Patti and I offer our prayers for you and thank you for sharing your Dad with us over the past twenty plus years. Hideaway has lost a great ambassador. He knew no strangers and welcomed all with whom he came in contact.

The world has lost an ambassador for Christ as well. Chuck was so Christ like. He fed the poor, drove cancer patients to their treatments, was a friend to all, and a servant to the needy. God has chosen to call him home and we know the words of our Lord as Chuck entered into his heavenly home, " Well done my loyal and faithful servant. Enter into your new home."

Patti and I will miss him so much.

“ Chuck was one of the finest Gentlemen I ever Met. He was so much fun and had a great sense of humor I had no idea he was a Petroleum Eng. as my husband George Camp was also.. He was a great dancer, especially to the music of: "JONNIE BE GOOD"

My health now will not permit me to attend his service. I will be remembering him and saying prayers for his family and all his friends who will miss him..

“ Pat and I enjoyed the friendship of Chuck while residents of hideaway for 20 years. Chuck was a loyal friend always seeking ways to lend a helping hand and listening ear.

He was a person of great character and this world is better off for his having been here for 92 years.
