“ I have no words to express the loss of a man that was such a rock to his family and our extended family. The memories of us watching football games came back just recently when we were all together last year watching the Texas A&M game. All of the hollering for our teams. Someone mentioned this reminds me when we were at Mama Kelley's house watching football games. No bigger fans than my Uncle Clyde and his brothers with his nephews and nieces we had such fun back then! My dear Uncle Clyde I will miss you! Love to my Aunt Patty, Stephanie, Les, Annie, Mathew, Ben, Belinda and Charlie my prayers are with all of you at this time. Love you all Tammy and Marc House

“ Our precious Clyde has gone to his Heavenly Reward and will be dearly missed. He was so loved by all he met and my life has been richly blessed by having been touched by having Clyde in my life. We will all miss his smiling face at our OES meetings. My heart goes out to Pattie during this sad time in her life. We are there for you Pattie, just ask if you need anything. Love Barbara Cockerell
