“ I bought my first brahman type calves from Curtis' dad when I was a teenager. That's when I met Curtis. He was always willing to help all he could. Great guy---he will be missed. Hayden Moore

“ We looked forward to seeing him and Marlene every Monday! They were like family to us! He was very dedicated to his cattle buying. I remember one Monday he got sick while we were on the Stock Cow and he came and sit down for awhile but would not leave until the weigh cows were over. He will be dearly missed by all of us! The office staff of Sulphur Springs Livestock.
