“ I met Danny way back in 1972 when he was working in a Bieber Shop off of 6th Street in Irving, TX. He did such a good job making me look good, he was MY Barber for right around 28 Years. He was March - July older than me. We were both born in 1952, which I thought was unique. We had some Great conversations while I sat in his Barber Chair & I considered him a good friend. I sent home a Birthday Greeting just days ago & he usually responded when he saw them, before this Birthdate. I wondered if he was ok, so I did a Search on his name & Location & was Shocked when the Search gave me the Sad News that he was already gone. Sorry old Friend, I should have kept in touch a bit better. RIP Danny, rest well.

“ Danny was a long time friend. He was my barber for 20 years who also cut my wife's hair. She was the only lady to have that privilege in the many years he worked as a barber. That's how good a friend he was.

An occasional motorcycle trip together with him was always a bonus.

Boy, was he a talker. He always had an update on the local news. He also had a very strong political preference.

His love for his dog Chester was always apparent as they were together until Chester's passing. They will always be together as he's requested Chester's ashes to be buried with him.

Danny took on a second family after the death of his first wife and supported them and their extended family for many years and was loved by them all.

He will be greatly missed by his family and well as mine.

“ Papa, you impressed upon many a people throughout your years. You will always be remembered by far more than you could ever phatham. Heavy hearts and treasured memories will follow after, remembering all the good times, tough times, and the bestest of times. You loved deep and with all you had, never wearied. Always patient, and resilient; he enjoyed the work he chose for himself, never having had worked a day in his life. He could offer wisdom and advice, if was sought after, sometimes even if it weren't ..or simply just stand there and listen. Many a children, far more than his own blood...though no one could ever tell and not a word was said otherwise. If he loved you he loved forever & unconditionally. He faced many trials and challenges throughout his life, always persevering and ready to fight life back. A heart of gold he had. Soar high in the heavens papa, alongside the angels. I'll forever be thankful for the blessing you were to me and also for so many others. You will be greatly missed yet our greatest treasured memories we'll never forget!
Love for always Papa Danny,
