“ At the Austin State School Darrell was a face in the small door window, coming to visit his then girlfriend, Donna. I got to know him, and learned that he had a big heart and was very smart. Sometimes he would ask one of us to open the dictionary to any page and start asking him for the definitions. He always knew. An intelligent and brilliant soul that I know is missed by family and friends.

“ Christy & Dorothy & Family,
So sorry to hear about Darrell, or as he's always been called from us cousins "up north" Little Darrell! Great pictures and video....I think my mom would have loved the t-shirt "they told me to marry a Norwegian - it'd be fun!".....One time visiting the California cousins I remember them asking Marilyn what was the word Donna kept sayingufta!

You're in our prayers & thoughts, even though we are miles away,

Uncle Lowell

“ Darrel dedicated his life to his family. His pleasures were simple: God, Family, Work. He was one of the best as a professional machinist,. Darrel enjoyed yard work and family time. His memory remains in our hearts and his Spirit is with our Lord and Savior.

We'll miss you Uncle Darrell.

I can recall one of the last times I saw Uncle Darrell in Texas, I was a young man and brimming with the arrogance of youth and overconfidence. Instead of saying "Uncle Darrell" when speaking to him, I called him by just his first name "Darrell".

"It's UNCLE Darrell" he reminded me. A lesson well taught and well learned. Never spoke to an Aunt or Uncle by their first since, nor ever will again!

Love and prayers from Australia.
