*Oh, how I will miss this special man! Nandell was our long time good friend/brother who we will miss the rest of our lives. Growing up with a boy like Nandell was more like having a brother with you whenever you needed one. His laugh was contagious and his talent evident on the football field and his loyalty constant. His strength was self-made, not in a gym or with weights but with pushups, chin-ups, walking on his hands...my dad thought he was a phenomenon each time he left my house walking on his hands all the way to his car!!
Jan and family, I understand your great loss and will forever feel the void you feel this day for such an amazing man.
Sending you love and many prayers to our faithful God for His presence to give you His incomparable peace and comfort.*

*Love you lots,
Sandra Bozman*
