“ Linda, I was so sorry to learn of your mother's passing, but at least we know she is with her Lord.

She was a dear friend to both me and Jean; in fact, Jean talked with her the day before she died. As her pastor I had several conversations with her on a personal note, and I know she loved her Lord dearly. In public, I truly appreciated two things about your mother -- her dry, witty sense of humor and her frankness. You never had to wonder what she was thinking and she was not hesitant to express her opinion! We need more like her.

Jean and I both will miss her dearly and have you and your brother in our prayers.

In His love,

Robert and Jean Davenport
