“ I first met Ed in New Orleans back in the 90s and had the privilege of working with him again with Superior. He was the definition of kindness. His positive attitude, generous spirit and unique sense of humor would brighten up even the most mundane of meetings. He always knew what to say to help build a person up and always had time to sit and listen. May he rest in peace in the presence of our Lord and Savior.

“ We wish we could make the funeral service, but with our age and covid-19, that is not safe. We had such great times with Ed and Cathy, going out to eat ( naturally ), and having coffee and just visiting together. We will miss them forever and love them forever.

“ I worked with Ed in New Orleans starting in the late 90's through the OSCA/BJ Services merger. Ed was a dedicated employee and helped me a lot with my clients providing his expertise on downhole tools. I will always remember his smile and easy going personality, along with the lunches at La Fiesta and discussions we had at Chinese restaurants about the fortune cookies. Rest in peace, you will be missed.

“ I met Ed Gibbs and his brother Ricky when I was six yrs. old (1965) I was riding bus 4 with Dewy Lyons as the bus driver. The Gibbs boys could tell I was nervous about riding the bus as it was new to me, so they had me sit with them until I got the hang of what was going on. Thus began the 55 yr friendship between the Bodiford and Gibbs family. As a result of our friendship, our parents became friends and Ed ended up marrying my dad's youngest sister Cathy, making him my uncle.
