“ I will always remember Mrs. Dickens in every loving way possible. She was my mother in law when I was younger. She was a wonderful woman. She was the kind of Christian woman, wife, mother, grandmother, mother in law, pastor's wife that was in a league of her own. An incredible heart.

She could cook like she invented cooking. The best ever. She could have passed the collection plate and sold lottery-like tickets at church to see who got an invite for lunch after church. Every Sunday. And then give it to the church. I'm guessing there are folks in heaven crossing their fingers for a Ms. Esther German Chocolate cake on Sundays.
