

Eugene Malone

March 17, 1961 - April 12, 2021

A Memorial Service for Eugene Malone, age 60 of Flint, Texas, is scheduled for 11:30 a.m. Saturday, April 17, 2021 at the Cross Brand Cowboy Church in Tyler, Texas with Pastor Mike Morrow and Pastor Brett Wells officiating.

Family will receive friends from 10:00 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. prior to the service.

Eugene passed away at his home on Monday, April 12, 2021. He was born March 17, 1961 in Tyler, Texas to the late Cody Alvis and Alvah Cole (Wyatt) Malone. Eugene has lived in Flint for the last 4 years and was previously of Red Springs, Texas. He was a member of Cross Brand Cowboy Church in Tyler, Texas and served 17 years with the Lindale Volunteer Fire Department where he achieved the rank of 1st Assistant Chief. Throughout his life Eugene worked at the Cannery in Lindale, was a Deputy Constable for Precinct 5 in Smith County and worked for 18 years as a mechanic at the Target Distribution Center in Lindale. He enjoyed the outdoors, hunting, fishing, camping, and also enjoyed talking and visiting with people. Eugene is preceded in death by his infant brother, Cecil Martin Malone.

He is survived by wife, Stephanie Malone of Flint; daughter, Emily Cole Peters and husband, Chance of Flint; brothers, William Cody Malone of Lindale, Richard Malone and wife, Kathy of Tyler; sisters, Dian Schuring and husband, Harry of Longview, Sheila Sulser and husband, Scott of Corpus Christi, and Sharon Lott and husband, Tony of Longview; grandson, William Glen Peters of Flint; and numerous nieces, nephews, and other loving family members and friends. Serving as honorary pallbearers will be Gregg Potter, Eric Radford, Stan Clark, Ronny Wells, D.A. Books, David Reynolds, Kaden Lee, the Lindale Volunteer Fire Department, Smith County Precinct 5 Constable's office, and fellow coworkers of the Target Distribution Center.

“ Always a smile and something kind to say. A heart full of love for Stephanie ( you could see it whenever he looked at her) . A man that loved children and never met a stranger. One that could make you laugh and loved his church. A devoted man to God and his family. You will be missed Eugene but never forgotten. ❤️🌹🙏

“ Our deepest sympathies to Stephanie and family. I know he's not suffering but your heart still hurts. I'm so thankful we were able to get together in the summer and get to know Eugene better. David really thought highly of him and enjoyed talking to him. If we had lived closer I'm sure he would have visited him all the time.

Love all of you so much.

“ So sorry to hear about Eugene. He was such a loveable, funny, and kind cousin. He was a fighter with all of his health issues. I know you will miss him terribly. My heart goes out to you. He and Bobby are probably discussing a lot of things and how happy they are to no longer be a prisoner of cancer. Love to all of you cousins.

“ Stephanie, Sheila and Sharon...Prayers and love to each of you and your family. I'm so saddened to hear about this loss. What a blessing it was to me to have the opportunity to get to know Eugene and you three a few years back. Eugene was such a bright light even while facing hard times. I'll never forget his smile, laugh or giant hugs! Much love, Kristy Easley
