“ Uncle Freddie was the most caring and loving uncle. Aunt Jean and Uncle Freddie were always by my side when I was growing up. I will miss him so much.

Buddy Jack tells the story when you were thirteen, you killed your first deer on their deer lease. Your Daddy got so excited. The bad part your Daddy got stuck in the mud taking you and the deer home. So many good memories. My prayers are with you and Carolyn.

I have many happy memories of Jean and Fred when we were young marrieds and were raising children together. Lannie and Fred worked together before we were transferred to Bay City.

*Jean and I taught together at 'west Orange schools many years. My condolences to you, I know you have many happy memories!
