“ Freddie, we were best friends growing up in and around Hutchins. We went to all the way through school together, from the beginning to the end. You were my Best Man at Shelia and my wedding, you were my Friend and my Brother. I will miss our phone conversations and text messages. Love you and Miss you.

“ Still hard to believe Freddie is gone, but we know he is in the loving hands of God, along with his mom and dad and other family members. Freddie fought a difficult battle with cancer but now he is healed and suffers no more. Cousin we shared many childhood memories as we grew up on the dairy farm. One thing we did learn was strong work ethics and never giving up when times were hard. I'm thankful you are resting in peace now probably talking over the cattle prices with my daddy your Uncle Rudy Schenkel and Papa Schenkel and your dad Fritz. I won't be sad, I'll just say we will see each other again one day! All my love Cuz you will be miss!!
