“ We are saddened by the loss of Georgia. Georgia was such a dynamic, warm and happy person! We have many fond memories of her over the years – annual summer beach vacations at Surfside, Texas, family gatherings in Oklahoma and the extended hospitality offered to Randy when he was working in Dallas, Texas. Georgia and Johnny both enjoyed Randy’s cooking during his stay. She lived life to the fullest and set a wonderful example of how to enjoy life as a senior adult. She will be missed by the many people whose lives she touched.

The Gaddis family, Makariah, Vinnie and parents Angela and Vincent will never forget Ms. Georgia. She taught Vinnie and Makariah to swim. I'm still yet to learn. It was SO much fun being at Georgia and Johns each summer. As I recall Georgia threw herself a birthday party each summer and the kids, who were her guest were treated like royalty. Then there was the dog who climbed trees like he was a cub. Then Gina's family. Each of them well represented their bible names. God blessed my wife and I to play key roles in John's Homegoing and we SO miss him and now Georgia. Just last week I attempted to call you (Georgia) to say we love you and will never forget you.!! See you on the other side. Love, the Gaddis family.

“ Georgia was an inspiration to us all at our Texercise group in Hideaway. She enthusiastically led us in the freeform exercise every Tuesday and Friday. She shared her swimming triumphs with us and stories of family weddings she loved to attend. We will all miss her upbeat spirit and will continue to call our freeform exercise "Georgia's time".

“ Georgia was my cousin. She was a Christian far, far more than in name only. A more loving, giving person I have not met in my lifetime. The scriptural promise of being reunited with loved ones in heaven has been fulfilled with Georgia being with John and other loved ones. I know the concept of a loved one gone is a new star in the sky is meant to comfort small children, but the idea of Georgia being a bright new star in the night sky is a comfort to this old man.

“ Teacher Georgia in her element. Swimming Lessons with her were a big part of every summer for so many years.

“ Georgia's joy and ready smile for everyone was something we looked forward to seeing at Grace. She was a true inspiration for staying active at every stage of life. We could eagerly listen to her for hours - so many delightful stories of the last swimming event, travels, and the wonderful people who helped her participate at events. She called them by name, those who took her to the airport, picked her up at the new city, housed her and then got her back home! She would just glow talking about how kind those friends were to her! What a delight she was, and still an inspiration . . . Mike & Cindy
