

Hallie Platzer

October 28, 1947 - February 4, 2018

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

“ Hallie Platzer

October 05, 2023 at 02:48 AM

“ Hallie Platzer

October 05, 2023 at 12:01 AM

“ Aunt Sue was my Godmother. Thank you to everyone who shared such wonderful memories of her beautiful life and legacy.

*Adrienne Hoyt
Atlanta*

Adrienne Hoyt - January 08, 2021 at 07:58 PM

“ I tried as hard as I could to fit in where I never felt I belonged. Lindale was never truly my home, but I found sanctuary under the guidance of Mrs. Platzer in her classroom. When I graduated in 1997 she gave me a card and inside left a hand written note: “Joe, you have made me laugh. You have made me cry. You have made me think. You evoke the emotional gamut. Remember that you don’t always have to fight against the current. Just use it to your best advantage.” In a stong field of competition, Sue Platzer was and will always be my guiding candle of wisdom. She is with me even now, as she is with all of you.

Joe (Heflin) Monster - July 18, 2018 at 05:01 AM

PS

“ Miz Platzer was special and inspirational in so many ways! Her love for students and for her subjects is part of what motivated me to become a teacher myself. Some of my fondest memories include the trip to England, always being deducted 2 points for spelling errors- even when correct answers were only worth 1 point, doing 6 research papers in one semester, finding the lollipop bundle on our desks at birthday time, and sharing birthdays with Sue Platzer for many, many years. RIP, Miz P., and thank you always for your love, enthusiasm, humor, encouragement, and dedication to each of your students as if we were your own children. Sue and Al Platzer were 2 of the best parts of graduating from Lindale High School in 1989. Love and hugs forever!

Paula Sovia - February 14, 2018 at 12:03 AM

Holley
LeFeber

“ Mrs. Platzer was a tremendously positive and encouraging influence as both a teacher and a person. I was a teacher's assistant and she never hesitated to include me in class, whether it was reading assignments or Christmas cookies. Her pursuit of higher education also set me on a lifelong goal of fully conquering Dante's Divine Comedy.

Sincerest condolences and warm hugs to the entire family.

Holley LeFeber - February 08, 2018 at 12:23 PM

SB

“ Dear Aunt Sue and Uncle Al

My heart is breaking to think that Aunt Sue is no longer with us. I have such fond memories of you both. I am sad that we have not had much contact in the last few years. Please know that your family in Houston is praying for you. It was always Sue & Al. If there is anything you need PLEASE call on us.

sheryl barrett - February 07, 2018 at 12:52 PM

“ My husband and I both loved having Mrs. Platzer for English! She was so smart and sassy. We speak of her often and share stories from her class. We will never forget her! We will keep Mr. Platzer and the rest of her family and friends in our prayers.

Jill Wood - February 06, 2018 at 08:43 PM

JD

“ A sweet lady, smart as a whip, treasured teacher, fond memories of her from high school....she handled us kids with love and respect.....she will be greatly missed. Much love to her husband!

jenny lane darr - February 06, 2018 at 04:54 PM

KW

“ Mrs. Platzer was one of the best teachers I ever sat under! She taught English in a way that was fun and dynamic. She loved it and helped her students love it. She always pushed us to be the best writers we could be, the best students we could be, and best humans we could be. I will always remember her! Many condolences to Mr. Platzer and their family and friends.

Keith Westberry - February 06, 2018 at 11:50 AM

RL

“ Sue Platzer, our beloved friend, was such a tremendous blessing to anyone who knew her. She put God first in her life (and her precious AL P next), and all who knew her knew that. Her selfless work in her church was Christ-centered and such an example for us all. She made an impact on each and every student she taught at Lindale High School as well as every staff member. I thank God for every remembrance of her. She left a legacy of love and touched my very soul. She will never be forgotten.

Robbie Lyons

Robbie Lyons - February 06, 2018 at 11:00 AM