“ I remember Meet as my Sunday School teacher and counselor for Church Camp even before he married my Aunt Julie. He took the class on several outings on Saturdays or other weekdays as his schedule allowed. He was giving the Sermon on Thursday night at Church Camp outside of Athens Texas when I was about 12 years old. He Sermon was about David and Goliath. He gained the attention of everyone there when he got to the part where David used his slingshot and as the stone struck Goliath, Meet fell to the floor in silence. Then as he stood up, you could hear the sigh of relief and then the Amend. There were several people saved that night including a classmate of mine.
Another favorite memory of Meet is when my girls were young and we were going to visit Meet and Julie. The girls remembered Julie-s name but has a little trouble with Mert's so they simply called him Booger, a nickname that has stuck even though my girls are nearly 18. Meet " Booger" Carnahan will always live in our memories and I hope in every life that he touched. Until that day. Tommy
