“ Please accept our delayed condolences on the loss of Mr. Dietz. We just learned of his passing yesterday - Memorial Day (how appropriate.) Our Dad, Donald Dowdell, was a friend of Mr. Dietz from the 466. He was the radio operator & Mr. Dietz spoke of him in his interview in 2015. Our family met Mr. Dietz once at the airport & he and our Dad walked with their arm around each other's back & they shared their stories. It was a blessing to have met him. He & Dad exchanged Christmas cards & phoned each other many times since their time in the service. I remember how sad Mr. Dietz was when he learned of Dad's passing in 2006. Wishing you all God's peace.

*With our deepest sympathy,
The Family of Donald Dowdell*

How wonderful to find your remembrance. Harold was my FIL. I live in Flint, Texas, and had an engineering company in Tyler, which my son owns now. My father Donovan Moore was. a WWII veteran, too. The greatest generation.

I would have loved a photo of either my FIL and your father with their arms around each other.

“ It's nice to know that Mr. Dietz was blessed with long life, but even with all those years, they weren't enough for those who held him so dear to their hearts. To his family, I extend my condolences. May the countless memories you hold of your beloved father forever bring a smile to your face. In God's care, he rests. John5:28,29
