“ Harry was a wonderful gentleman with a quick wit and a disarming smile. One of the things I admired most about him was his ability to assess a situation thoroughly before offering a suggestion or comment. Harry never missed an opportunity to help those organizations or people of whom he cared about. Lindale is a better place due in part to Harry's involvement in the LEDC and other efforts to help the city grow and improve..

Marilyn, Justin, Austin and I send our heartfelt condolences to Debbie and the girls
