“ Honey, I will miss you so much! We've had a lot of fun, turned a few heads, and raised more a few eyebrows. Everywhere we went, whether it was to lunch, shopping, or to yet another doctor's appointment, we enjoyed each other's company so much! It's been an honor and a journey of love spending time with you the past 16 years. I love you. You are the mother of my heart. My entire family feels the loss of you and your great spirit. Eva

“Helen was very direct and funny. I preached in the afternoon Chapel services at Solstice (Englewood) Retirement Center where she lived. She was always faithful, and enjoyed coming, unless she was ill, each Sunday afternoon.

I visited with her and she would talk about being a nurse, her children and Eva. She talked about one of her daughters wanting to live in Austin, and she wanted to live in Houston, but then things got turned around, and she ended up in Austin, and her daughter moved to Houston. She missed her husband and her children. I am very blessed to have her as one of the congregation in our afternoon service and will miss her.

She enjoyed talking, one time we talked so long, she noticed the time and I left so she could get there, but she missed her evening meal, i felt bad about that, but she said it was ok. I think she was able to get something later.

Helen cared about people and was friendly to all, though frank at times.

One of our church ministries is to minister at Solstice/Englewood Retirement Center once a month. Pastor Jim Evans would come and lead the songs, our pianist Helen Harris would play. When Helen was not there to play, Helen Loving would ask where she was, she enjoyed her music. The last conversation we had, she mentioned that one of the reasons why she was happy to be at Solstice/Englewood was because there were church services in the building. She will be missed by all.
