“ I was fortunate to get to know and become friends with Hurshel in the years we worked at Target. So sad to hear that he has passed on but I know he is in a better place and that he will be waiting with a big smile when I get there. We both had a love of history, so I guess it was only natural when he joined up with the civil war reenacting group I was with. We shared many a tent and lots of campfire stories after that, and a bunch of highway miles too. I'm sad that I didn't get to see a lot of Hurshel after I left Target, but I still smile at the stories and antics that we shared from that big old barn. I know there are still several guys that can remember that Galveston deep sea fishing expedition. Not a lot of fish, but loads of laughs. Godspeed old friend, I'll see you on the other side.

I will never forget all the fun times we had when we were in school. So glad we got back in touch through Facebook. We talked and talked and talked even though we had not seen or heard from each other in years. I was so looking forward to us getting together next month at Tyler State Park. So sorry that did not happen. RIP my friend. To Hurshel's wife, son, grandson and sisters, y'all will definitely be in our thoughts and prayers. We don't understand why this happened but I know God is in control of all situations. Put your faith and trust in God. He will see you through the tuff times. I pray for peace and comfort for this dear family.
