“ In the late 1960s I had Mrs. Foy as my English teacher at Pleasant Valley High School. At the time, we all cringed as she drove us to transcribe Beowulf in Old English, diagram sentences and learn logic in writing. To this day, I look back with gratitude as her tough lessons have carried me through careers in copywriting, proofreading, and now as a contract negotiator. I hope the knowledge that she had a positive impact on a student gives you comfort. We need more teachers of her caliber.

“ Mr. Foy,
I saw in the QC Times this morning that Mrs. Foy passed away on Monday and I wanted to express my sincerest sympathies to you and your entire family. I have such great and fond memories of my days at JB Young and a lot of those are because of you and the fantastic job you did working with young and aspiring athletes, and I recall Mrs. Foy always being there, for you and us, even at our end of the year receptions. I know you will miss her but I also know that your heart and mind are filled with wonderful and everlasting memories. My thoughts and prayers are with you.
