“ I just want to say how blessed I have been to know Jack and Rickie McGill. The years have gone by so fast since we walked the halls together on Bryan St. at AT&T...I will always remember the motorcycle stories and the planning of the trips to Terlingua Texas to the chili contests...I know Jack had a great time everytime he went...cause you could not wipe that great and sincere smile off his face...great person and co-worker we will all miss...!##imported-begin##Michael Linder##imported-end##

“ Rickie,
I met Jack in 7th grade. We sat beside one another in World History. I confess I had a crush on him in 7th grade. Although he was always nice, he didn't seem to know. Since graduation from high school, I have seen him at reunions and recall that he was so much the same as that school boy, many years ago...always smiling, revealing those big dimples, Jack was so friendly to everyone and a really "good guy." When we would visit at reunions, he always said, "yes, ma'am," or "no, ma'am," if I asked him a question. I have clear memories of Jack and I wanted to share some with you. Although your heart is broken, I hope you find some comfort in knowing that long-ago days of him are not forgotten. Please accept my most profound sympathies.
