“ We are sorry to see the passing of Bro Jackie last year, but we know where we will see him again one day. We had not communicated for many years. Our connection was at the Lakeview Baptist Church near Lake Cherokee where Bro. Jackie’s Dad, M.F. Conley, pastored many years. My mother, Sippy Cates Morton thought the world of the family. She is living with us now. Thinking of Sally and the rest of the Conley family with loving thoughts and prayers.

“ Jack is remembered as a great missionary and one who always had a smile and word of encouragement. Tara and her classmates had the grand opportunity to be guests in the Conley home Carolyn and Marilyn had graduated high school. Tara still talks so fondly of her Uncle Jack and Aunt Sally. Our family knows first hand how difficult it is to say goodbye to your dad and husband. God is good and we ask that He wrap His arms around you when the going gets difficult. He cares for you and as the song says, He is God in the valley as well as God on the mountain.

“ Many memories came back to my mind when I learned of Jacks death. My sympathy goes out to you all in your grief.

I wish I could be there for his farewell tributes but alas, we all grow old.

May God bless you all!

“ So sorry to read of this loss, dear Aunt Sally, Liz, Marylin and Carolyn. Uncle Jack was a wonderful, loving man. What sticks with me most after all these years is the smile and bright eyes he always seemed to have, and the way he made each person feel they were important and loved. You are truly blessed to have had him as a husband and father. May the arms of God embrace you, and may His love through your family and friends hold you up and carry you through.

“ Once Michael Muragu and I flew in from Burundi on Cameroon Airways (the Sometimes Airways) and we were very tired and stressed because we had to wait in the airport for many hours with armed soldiers milling all around us. We were very happy to get on the airplane when it finally arrived. Jack picked us up at Kenyatta Airport because it was almost midnight. He took us to his house, but Sally wasn't there. We were very hungry not having eaten all day, so Jack said, "There is food in the fridge, bread on the counter, and I'm going to bed." Michael and I looked at each other, not really feeling at ease to find food in someone else's kitchen. Jack peeked back into the living room and told us it was alright, just help ourselves because he didn't prepare meals when Sally was gone. Jack was a very special person and Louie and I will always remember his "It's Memsahib time" meaning it was time for all guests to go home.

“ Our loving thoughts and prayers are with you Sally, your daughters and their families. Jack was a great man of God. And there are many in East Africa that are deeply indebted to him as their teacher/preacher who helped them to know more about Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior.

He was a good friend to us. We too are grieved in your loss. May the God of all Comfort wrap you up in his loving arms.

We are praying for all of you!

“ Jack was in the top tier of missionaries ,who could preach. A. First class missionary.

I lost some discussions with him but never my respect for a God called man of God.
