“ My favorite memory was of the family reunions and how Jim liked the auctions. He loved bidding against Joy, Roy and my brother Charles. Sometimes I think he did it to see how much money they would spend. He was loved and he will be missed.

“ My dad loved my mom very much. He loved us kids. He loved his grand kids and great grand daughters as his own. He loved to tell his stories from his childhood and let me tell you had some adventures that makes me wonder how he ever survived childhood. He had a bouncing laugh I will never forget. He loved God and his so Jesus and he raised us right. He could play the Piano and it was so elegant and beautiful. He was a fighter from the day he was born weighting three pounds and showing up his doctors when they said he wouldn't live longer than two years. M.S. didn't beat my dad...he simple stood up and walked away from it. Love you daddy...forever.
