“ Jimmy Lyon wasn't just a friend in name. Jimmy was a true friend. When you went to Jim with anything, he didn't ask why, he ask when? That was evident one late night early morning years ago. My son was coming in from Tyler and his truck broke down. Only person I knew had a trailer large enough to put it on was Jimmy Lyon. Called, woke him up, and explained everything and I remember to this day, the voice on the other end saying, “Kenbob”, I'll be right there. Jimmy was a man of Action and Strong Convictions. He loved his family. He loved the Lord. Jimmy, you'll be missed my friend. But I know that one day we'll meet again. And by golly, maybe just maybe there'll be camping in Heaven. Those were fun times. Until we meet again on the other side friend, this is goodbye. Love you friend.
